

Art Myers

Art Myers graduated from TCC and went on to FSU where he graduated with a B.S. in Mass Communications. His broadcasting career began in Tallahassee radio. Later, Art's work at WTXL-TV Channel 27 caught the eye of the WCTV-Channel 6 news director, who offered Art the job of anchoring the Good Morning Show. In addition, Art produces and anchors the Eye Witness News at Noon on Channel 27. Over the past 18 years, Art has become a familiar face and voice to the people of Tallahassee and the Big Bend. Art won an Associated Press award for his "Close Encounters" animal features and is in demand as an emcee for local and area events.
